Success stories from people, just like you, who have read A Happy Pocket Full of Money:

*I love what you are doing!! Fantastic!! You have been a great help to me. I have purchased "Happy Pocket Full of Money" through Bob Doyle's site. One of the greatest reads EVER!! ...Since that time, December 8th, 2002, a lot has changed. The universe has been delivering all kinds of incredible new insights and direction. So much information that I am having difficulty processing it all. EVERY SINGLE BIT OF INFORMATION RESONATES WITH MY SOUL. Bingo. I was lead to Lynn Grabbhorns book " Excuse Me, Your Life is Waiting" TALK ABOUT RESONATING WITH MY SOUL!! This book unlocked a HUGE door for me. It change my spiritual belief system completely. Authors I have read since this book: Eckhart Tolle, Abraham-Hicks, U.S. Anderson, Wayne Dyer, Deepak Chopra, Stuart Wilde, yourself, Joe Vitale, Ernest Holmes, and a host of others. I attended a recent Deepak Chopra and Wayne Dyer seminar and I was blown away!! BLOWN AWAY! Then I came across Bob Doyle's site. I don't remember how. I signed up for Wealth Beyond Reason and another flood of dynamite truth came my way. Your book solidified everything [A Happy Pocket Full of Money]. ... You are amazing!! You have been a God send to me!! Thank you for the wonderful work you do !!!!! - Bruce R. Royer, http:// www. creationcaptured .com

*First off, I want to thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for writing, "A Happy Pocket Full of Money"... It has changed my life forever! I've always enjoyed reading books on the subject of personal development, and have become enthralled in some of the great ones of all time, such as: "The Science of Getting Rich", "Think and Grow Rich", "Excuse Me, Your Life is Waiting", and "The Power of Your Subconscious Mind", But your book really inspired me! I can't describe the feeling that came over me, numerous times, throughout the reading of your book... I guess that was the feeling of living in the Here and Now! - Kent Glass, kglass1@telusplanet.net

*I love your work. You have made an enormous difference to my live and no doubt hundreds of others and I thank you from the depth of my being. - Alana Sheldon, innerpeace \_alana @yahoo.com

My life has been shifting as of late. (in a good way!!) The Universe has been bringing me all kinds of information that is answering the questions I have been asking for years. Who am I? Why am I here? What do I do? How do I find my true self? How do I override what my ego is saying to me so I can live and act from my true self? I came across your work through Bob Doyle's site. "Happy Pocket Full of Money" has answered all my questions, and more importantly it resonates with my soul. - Bruce Royer, brroyer @social.rr.com

Dave, just another big THANK YOU for the software and book. It is amazing. EVERYTHING I have been studying the past few years you have managed to capture so logically and wisely, anybody that ever crosses your site and for some illogical reason decide not to purchase your products could not do themselves any bigger disfavours, by missing the most concise source of info anywhere on the Net (Planet?) they are going to have to buy many, many different books and spend thousands of dollars just to, ONE DAY, get to maybe 60% of the info they could have had by buying just one (Happy Pocket Full of Money) or some of the other books. "You shall seek the Truth and the Truth shall set you free" is one of my very favourite quotes and many people totally misunderstand it. I have been studying this field for some time now, and have read many, many books. There are NO other book I have come across that puts the TRUTH in more detail at the fingertips of the reader. JUST READ IT and follow the process, IT DOES WORK! - Jannie Loots, www.ichc.co.za

I was recommended to my new job by my ex-husband. I have been divorced since 1989 but kept trying to understand why I still felt love and compassion after all that took place to destroy the marriage. I did my best to hold on to the good memories and dissolve the bad. There were many reasons I could of hated him but somehow I never could. Its taken me many years to see how I created this. I read The Course Of Miracles and that helped me understand. Your information really helps me see it more clearly. I am happy I kept an open relationship in my heart with my ex-husband. It allowed this new job to happen. Also my new boss is a multimillionaire and my job is housekeeping for his parents. They are very kind and sweet and it doesnt even feel like a job. I just mention all this because I know its my change of thoughts that created this. Thank You. – Heidi, heidiam @centurytel.net

After reading A Happy Pocket Full of Money, reading I was so impressed that I bought the life and wealth packages as well as the ProvaLife Achiever software. I'm not writing this testimonial because I am trying to advertise a website, nor am I writing this because I stand to benefit monetarily from it. If you look at my occupation, I actually have more to lose than gain by going public with my endorsement of these products, as my field of work tends to be conservative. So why am I writing an endorsement? Because the information in Mr. Cameron's books are life changing! After going through the material, my relationships with people in general have improved, I am less frustrated at work, and I have learned to enjoy life again. I am so positive about the future now. But don't take my word for it, download his free ebook samples and check it out for yourselves, you WILL NOT regret it! Thanks David! I wish you the best! (I wish I could write better, but I just can't describe how much this material has changed my outlook on life) - Leandro X. Centenera, M.D. Ob-Gyn

I just have to tell you that it has ALREADY exceeded expectation! The section on vibrations has ONCE AGAIN made more "accessible" to me, the information that I already "knew" at one level, but now have a totally new and powerful level of integration of it. There is real power in your assemblage of words. Your greatest gift is the ability to communicate these concepts in such a powerfully understandable way. My life has had a significant shift within the past 60 minutes by going through a few sections of this software. Anyone who commits to going through the entire program is going to totally change their world, and quickly. Again, it could be that it is so powerful for me because I'm already "ahead of the game" in some aspects, being very familiar with your earlier work, and ACTIVELY working to design a new reality for myself. Still, it's fabulous for the total "beginner". David, I'm telling you that you have pure gold here, once again. - Bob Doyle, bob@boundlessliving.com

As a member and publisher I have so greatly benefited from your thought processes that my entire life is changing. I am currently working on a major project. At first I was absolutely unsure of the reason for me as a woman to undertake such great task. Later I read a quote by Margaret Thatcher "It may be the cock that crows, but it is the hen that lays the eggs", which convinced me marginally. Then your spiritually scientific encouragement changed my life to the degree that I consider myself important enough to actually do it. May you inspire millions with your purpose. - Ina Bliss, http:// www.inabliss.com

I just read the Pocket Full of Money ... amazed and astounded with the energy of expression. ...just the clarity and joy of the truth of old in the language of today. We are grateful. - James

I find your work to be nothing short of genius and am truly inspired and will one day want to share this material with other people. I have studied Religious Science and can tell you it is not as easy to understand or as powerful as your work. Thank You. - Nancy Brennan

Just finished your book on "happy pocket full of money". The name itself brings joy and happiness. You have done the wonderful work of a master weaver bringing the invisible elements that works behind manifestation of true prosperity and wealth in our lives. In my individual work of creating awareness of self and society at many levels I often encounter great fear -- fear of unknown. People do not want to know beyond what they know because it shifts their worldview dramatically. I was looking for a way to give them universal tools that awakens the self-power and what better way to get attention than something that every individual is struggling with - having enough money to get by. Your book is simply amazing and I recommend it to everyone, including those who have plenty of money but little joy or passion for life. – Mita, http:// www.seek2know.net

*have hardcopies of "Science of Getting Rich", "Think and Grow Rich" and "As A Man Thinketh" these books are priceless wisdom for me. These are the actual pearls, Diamonds and Golds for me. Your Free Download is incredible. It explains the effect of Quantum Physics in a very simple manner. I'm getting more and more enlightenment and going deep within myself after reading the few pages of your free download. I really don't have the words to put my feelings and the clarity of understanding, I'm getting. I would like to buy the Hardcopy of "A Happy Pocket Full of Money" ... I would like to give my gratitude to you by buying your book and applying the principles in my life and also encourage/motivate people around me to be aware of your incredible work ... Thanks a ton for helping me to gain clarity in my thoughts. Now, I understood very deeply that "Every soul has its own journey", The sum and essence of all my confusing thoughts was this, "Why don't people consider Building their inner life is a way to achieve their Outer Success?" As Stephen Covey beautifully says in his book "7 habits of Highly Effective People", that to have a complete, overall successful life one should primarily focus on building the character. Character is the primary quality which determines the quality of life, and all others are only secondary. But (Why? this was my question), "very few people are inclined to restoring the character ethic in their lives and lot others are not seeing and not caring about their inner lives." Once again, Thanks a lot David. Now, I'm more committed to inner success as well as outer success in my life. Thank you so much. I'm waiting for your Paper back edition of "A Happy Pocket Full Of Money". - Alagappan C.M., cm\_alagu@yahoo.com

I am soooooo excited. Today is a very special day in my life. I thank you and God! Maybe its just me, but I feel change already. Again David Cameron, thank you for such a wonderful blessing. I feel such a great desire to be able to communicate with others that are on the same path. Thank you for providing an opportunity such as this for me! Thank you, thank you, thank you. – Dee

Things have really changed...the amount of creation I am doing is incredible...I even bought a car the other day....by being more of the person for such....What can I say Dave....Thanks for the insights, the knowledge, the chance to better appreciate what life is all about...and how to shape it to design...it has been profound to say the least....!! - Moses Kemibaro, www. dotsavvyafrika .com kemibaro @yahoo.com

*I decided to resign from [previous company] to focus on my own business, DotSavvy Limited. The web site will be up in a few days so promise to email you details when its ready. You know what? Com](http://www.dotsavvyafrika.com) kemibaro @yahoo.com

*I must tell you that your material, site, and insights are... well I don't find the word ... are Life Changing! It's like reading and meditating on what we 'always' knew but this time in a clearer, focused language. ... such deep spiritual insights into the origin, order, and laws of the Universe. Anyway I am enjoying "Marcus Aurelius," and "Ralph Waldo Emerson" at the moment. David If you happen to read this message, Have a Great Day And thank you again for you were the one the hand of Providence chose to send me what I needed to replenish my soul at this time of my life. - Joel Bomane, http:// www. start-work-home. Com

Thankyou David, I have since paid for and received my downloads. I would like to take this opportunity to thankyou for the Happy pocket download which I am enjoying immensely. Your writings have helped me understand and appreciate what happened to me when I took part in a course 3 years ago called

Avatar. On the third day of the 8 day course two amazing things happened. First we were using a technique to 'deliberately' create our reality (with the absolute certainty that you speak of). For the lesson, I decided to create "life is funny" In very short time I was laughing at everything, from the wallpaper, to the pen on the coffee table(LOL). This went on for 3/4 of an hour, untill I 'dis-created' it . The second thing that happened on that same day was an experience of 'Source'. I had been outside, sitting by the stream and simply visually 'feeling' a large rock protruding up through the water. Slowly all boundaries seemed to melt and continued to do so with the river, pastures, hills , the earth etc. My perspective had reversed from the norm of looking 'out' to see the world , to now wittnessing the whole of creation from beyond creation. I didn't fully understand or really appreciate that I had transended all 'experience' and just "Was" ---pure Being, before any beliefs or lables . Truthfully David, after several hours of this indiscribable rapture, lthe experience unfolde with quite a shock---suddenly I was back to my defined self, well, almost. There seemed a residue of the 'state' i'd been in. I was excited and frightened at the same time. Untill reading your simple explanations using quantum physics , I was too frightened to re-visit that pure source again. I now know that 'Source' is the oneness that we all are before we choose to define our selves and seperate the One reallity into the many illusions. You have helped me gain the understanding and confidence to just BE. Thank you David. - Phil Jones

I just want to say that this book is what I have been waiting for for a very, very long time. It compresses the information into one book and one does not have to read 20 to get the message. I cannot wait for the others to come now. ... my site is www.ichc.co.za Best wishes, I am supporting you VERY strongly here in South Africa. I would also like to chat to you soon about affiliating with you to present your work in course material here (as you will see from our site). - Jannie Loots, www.ichc.co.za

Recently I had the pleasure of reviewing an eBook by David Cameron entitled A Pocket Full Of Money, I was moved tremendously by it. I was so sure the book was going to read like so many other money and self-help books I read in the past, another author instructing readers with misunderstood biblical quotes and closing statements of "think positive and everything will be alright". If only I had this book twenty years ago, all of the hardships I could've avoided, well that's water under the bridge now. I was pleasantly surprised how David managed to delve deep to explain the gloriousness of the universe and how we, as humans, have been blessed with unlimited access to the universe's unlimited power. ... Who would've thought humans and our experiences are tied to the ever expanding universe? Not I. [David] has the magnificent talent of translating what was once considered to be complex knowledge into simple reasonings that even a 10 year old could understand. You will have more "aah hah, I get it moments" than you could've ever thought was possible while reading this fantastic eBook. A Pocket Full Of Money has really influenced my life in the most enlightened ways possible since being exposed to it a month ago. I discovered after my third read of the eBook I paid closer attention to my "inner" dialogue which revealed to me my "money" issues. Thanks to this publication I was able to discover and work on my ingrained negative expectations associated with money. I wish I could share with you all the emails I get on a daily basis from souls looking for relief. These people are looking for solace from their mediocre lives of dreams never manifested, failure, loneliness, and feelings of being "lost". A Pocket Full Of Money is what I urgently recommend anyone, doesn't matter how successful (unsuccessful), happy (sad), or contented (discontented) anyone may think they are, to read this book. Lives could be made more glorious and exciting with just being exposed to the information David Cameron shares in this eBook soon to be paperback. For a long time I felt there was some hidden knowledge the average person was destined to not ever know or understand, and I was right. This eBook lays this hidden information at your doorstep for you to act on or push away, it's up to you. It's my prayer you purchase this book and apply the uncommon knowledge to your life everyday, designing it filled with passion and purposeful living, setting yourself free from the limited and impossible thinking thought to be true by the misguided masses. - Regena English, editor St.Mary Publishing Company of Houston <http://leatherspinsters.com>

[On Mar 25, 2002]...have just started reading you book... I NEED IT!... feeling very wobbly at the moment financially!!!! The ... work is almost at a stop and nothing else on the horizon!!!... [On Apr 16, 2002] I wanted to thank you for the book which ... now I have read it and thank you so much for waking up the bits I had let sleep again....like I AM WEALTH I AM BUNDANCE I AM JOY ... so simple, why so easy to slip? I guess the human element. Well, I need that jolt, and am being!!! - Sally M.

The book is fantastic. It is a unification of Deepak Chopra and quantum physics. Very well written ... that is where the whole world is going these days... they [wealth] come from the source. That is the theme of the book. - Dr. Odhiambo, Radiologist

I am enjoying the Quantum Physics chapters. I have read a lot about quantum physics, but I am NOT a mathematician, and I could totally wrap my mind around it. You write about it in a very clear and succinct manner. I am going slow here because I am taking time to think about it. Have a good evening. - Suzan Carroll, Phd., psychotherapist, www. multidimensions .com

*Thanx so much for everything you're doing! You really have pulled the information together from many different places so it's all in one place-this is what makes the difference for me! Keep up the great work! - Carol M.

*I have discovered the key in the surface level, what I just discovered at your Book "A Happy Pocket Full of Money" has scratch the surfaced I have discovered! This is really the Most Scientifically Explained Book about Wealth and Success and the One I will love the most... Nothing can stop me promoting your book "A Happy Pocket Full of Money" and you as the Author. Your book scratch the surface of what I have discovered as the key to wealth and success ... It covers all the surface. Most I have read about success have something in common but nothing dissects into a sub-atomic level .. I am planning to create a publishing website that is tribute to your Book and to you as the Author ... I believe it happens that I discovered you and your book with purpose and my subconscious mind act in a nano second to grab an oppurtunity. - Richard Alcebar, www. bizamulet .com

*I am sitting here with tears of joy at your absolute generosity. More and more these days, my hearts desires are becoming manifest spontaneously. I have read some of the books in your site a few years ago. *Your work is awesomely careful, succinct, and complete in both details and examples. Your 'Happy Pocket' is most clearly and magnetically presented to the reader. Kindest regards. - Ken Roberts, kroberts @core.com

*As I suspected, I am completely thrilled with your material. And that is putting it mildly. I could go on and on about it, but I want to get right to the point. I am a teacher. I have given several workshops on "Reality Creation" around the country. Your material has added to my arsenal of knowledge in a huge way ... The Universe is delivering a wide variety of material to me that shows me very definite ways to "teach" what I know - and better still, to LIVE it. Your material is by far, some of my very favorite. It has brought be clarity and understanding on several key points. In essence, it has given me "permission" to fully experience what I have known to be true all these years ... I'm extremely interested in doing workshops based on your material. Quite frankly, I feel the WORLD needs to hear these messages - and this is what I do. I teach as I am learning myself. I am a "conduit" if you will. I have no fear of putting myself in front of people and sharing the information that the Universe funnels my way, and in fact, I believe it is a large part of Who I am, and Why I am here ... Finding your site was a DIRECT response to a request I submitted to the Universe - on many levels... Thanks again for making this material available to me. It is quite a Gift, in my mind. - Bob Doyle, bob@boundlessliving.com

On paper our income is higher than average. However, through mismanagemnet and indifference, we were living payday to payday. I started to hate and resent work. I grew anxious over our mortgages (yes, there is an "s" denoting plural), over bills. I aspired to be a housewife/domestic goddess. I (These days, this is not an option and considered a sign of laziness) Our son had been jailed several times over the past few years since graduating high school. Our creditors were calling, accounts were sent to collections. My car was repo'd. Stuff I saw on TV, but didnt think would happen to me. (keyword:comparison) Throughout my life I have practiced bits and pieces of the info presented . However, I chose to escape the "real" world of disappointment and resentment and hurt through reading fiction. Nothing wrong with reading. Lots wrong with trying to escape from living your life. (keyword:ungrateful) Last December, I did my version of feng shui to our home. I budgeted, signed up with a credit management company, and gained control of our finances. By August this year, we only had 4 creditors, down from 18! I became optimistic & searched websites regarding stocks/investments, retirement planning etc. I dont even remember where I encountered your banner. I only know I felt inclined to click on...something I usually avoid when it's "self improvement...at a $ price." I immediately purchased a package. Even though it's at a wonderful, affordable price...please realize we had spent the last eight months tightly monitoring every cent to pay our creditors. Although I'm resistant to "clap your hands & can I get an Allelujah thrown in" type of seminars...yours struck me as 1) straightforward & simple, 2) easy to understand, and 3)sincere. I absorbed the material with glee. Bottom line for me was that if it was so easy to be gloom & doom and be living the life...how hard would it be for me to believe for one moment that "it's all good". My life truly felt like it was headed for Rx drugs for major depression or worse. For that one moment, for that one shining moment, I felt ...good...happy...not fretful, anxious, angry, or resentful... I took that feeling a step farther and.... well, Bob...my husband stumbled across a position in the UK; the.moving,housing, utilities paid for (Govt job). COLA included too. Our home sold in 24 hrs (4 different offers). We have enough to pay off the remaining creditors, the mortgages, and still have cash in hand. We are living in a country that I only dreamed of visiting. We have travel/lodging discounts to explore Europe. I sent my son all the info from WBR. He calls me to say how helpful and encouraging WBR has been. He uses the affirmations. I know he will be allright.

*My husband met people who share WBR's outlook. I "confessed" to him that I was studying WBR. What have I learned? It is all true. It is all possible. I started out looking for a way to bring cash into my life, and I am waking every morning with more...I am truly grateful, I am forgiving, I am loving, I am joyful, I am courageous. My affirmations used to begin with I am wealth...abundance...joy. My sincere gratitude for what I have now set my spirits soaring. I promised a condensed version... this is as condensed as I can contain myself. Conceive, believe, and be ready to receive. It's better than good...all is perfect and joyful. Amazing but true...my desires have manifested so quickly and effortlessly. And amazingly enough, they coincide with my husband's desires too. Bob, I extend my gratitude and smiles to you for putting together and sharing the WBR website. Aloha and Tally ho: Evie cc: David Cameron. - E.A.

*Your books are great. I read them when I'm having trouble getting out of a funk, like this morning (I've just about kicked the 'ego' out but it's smell is still lingering so I'm airing the room each time I read your stuff) and I feel great. - Andrew, andrew.jansen @vodacom.co.za

*Your book Happy Pocket Full of Money, was a big life-changing experience for me. After I read it, I felt compelled to have it translated into Polish and get it published for you in Poland. There is currently a strong market there for books on personal growth and metaphysics. I firmly believe that your book will be a great success there - Ela Terakowska, Toronto, ela.terakowska @ sympatico.ca

*In all seriousness, I am well read in the areas David writes about. But I have never found any resource or book that lays things out the way his do. EVERYONE should read this stuff! It gives one a whole new perspective on life, success, love, and the world. There isn't a day that goes by I don't read several pages and review the material. Thank you for your insights and the work you are doing. David, I cannot get enough of your material. It is evident we have read the same books, have had the same questions, but you have explored things in more depth than I did. CUDOS to you! Love this info...I EAT it for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. I would love to live close to you to be able to have some trully in-depth conversations. Most people I speak with have either no interest or its over their head. I could explore this stuff forever.... The material is very profound, life altering. Imagine if just 10% of the population took these teachings and concepts to heart...what a difference the world would be, huh? All the best, Dave Mullins - Dave Mullins

*My name is Sam Rosen, and my partner, Jimmy Davis, and I have left both of our day jobs to focus on creating abundance in our lives. Your book, A Happy Pocket Full of Money, which we read as part of the Wealth Beyond Reason seminar, has provided more clarity on wealth consciousness than any other text we've read...and we've read a lot. We were so inspired that we purchased ProvaLifeGoals and ProvaLifeMap, and have been amazed, to say the least, by both products. - Sam Rosen and Jimmy Davis, samrosen1 @yahoo.com

*Anyway, ordered his product (since he was raving about Happy Pocket) and read it first. Awesome! Inspiring. Amazing how one book can open up a whole new world. Thanks. - John Huver, jhuver@comcast.net

*... I, as others, am truly blown away by the complete and comprehensive TRUTHS that are in your books, seeming to encompass all of my study over the past 40 plus years!...So far, all of the rest of what you have written in this first book (Happy Pocket is next on my list, and I saw somewhere it is an expansion of the one I'm reading now) is a very succinct and wonderful explanation of all of the principles I've been learning over the past 20-30-40 years! I hope more and more readers will become open to these understandings - Jannette Robert Murray, jrmurray @icehouse.net

*I cannot express my gratitude enough for your most generous offer. Thank you sooo much. What a wonderful gesture!!! I am truly touched!!! :-) What you teach is so true - what goes around comes around!!! I had been in denial about everything for so long :-( and just a few short months ago I started turning my life around thanks to you, Bob Doyle (where I originally found out about your website and wonderful materials!!) a wonderful Medical Intuitive, and an equally wonderful Energetic Healer. I started doing forgiveness work and really reading your work and articles. Watch out world here comes the new Val!!! - Val Sherman, valsher@adelphia.net

I have been a little cynical lately about all of the personal and mind development. The reason was that after going to seminars, reading books, lessening to tapes, etc. I was getting a little bit disappointed to keep hearing over and over again the same think: "You can do and have anything you like..." or "I went from bankrupt to millionaire in one year...." How? Nobody would tell you the step-by-step of how this things work or how they did it step-by-step. David Cameron is the first author who explains step-by-step how all works in a simple manner. He must be a natural teacher. I couldn't put the book down although some things I read I would need to read it again as they sound to extraordinary to me. Thank you again for writing such a nice and simple book but with such depth. ... I spend till 5am going through everything. I felt like an sponge. I wanted to absorb everything. - Maria Schmolmueller

I purchased the "Wealth Pack" a few weeks ago and am having such tremendous gains from reading your material. A whole new world has opened up for me and my stress level is practically zero. This is an astounding as in the past, I've been such a constant "worry wart". My entire family is benefiting from this... it just trickles down into all their lives. I have such appreciation and gratitude for your gift of wisdom. And our financial life, which had been in the pits, is now turning around (or, more correctly, "WE ARE WEALTH".) I just wanted to relay a most amusing story which happened yesterday. I have a dog named, "Sparky" who is very attached to me. This past week, I went on a beach trip with my children and their school for a few days. My husband was home in the evenings, but Sparky missed me very much and wormed his way out of a barricade my husband had put up. He was off to find me. Now, Sparky has had a very large benign tumor growing out of his ear for the past couple of years. It didn't appear to be hurting him, but it was very unsightly and odorous. We even named it ("Ashley" ha ha). The cost of getting it removed was going to be between $500-$700. Because of our financial condition, I just couldn't justify spending this money on the dog when my children were in need of so many things. Nonetheless, I had saved up $700 for the operation and had it sitting in the bank for the past two months. I was waiting for our finances to turn around before I would be comfortable using it. However, I had a lot of attention on Sparky and kept visualizing the tumor being gone and how much happier he and all of us would be. So, Sparky ran down the street to a very busy road and was nearly hit by a car. Two women got out of their car, stopped traffic, and drove him about a 1/2 hour drive to the nearest animal shelter. When I got home that night and Sparky was gone, my first instinct was to just put up signs and wait until morning to see if anyone in the neighborhood had picked him up. But the funny part of it is, I KNEW THAT IT WAS GOING TO ALL BE FINE. My husband was astounded at my equanimity. I was not even worried for one second! Again, this is not my "usual behavior pattern" (thanks to reading your work, David). My husband and I posted signs all around the neighborhood that night, but I didn't receive any calls that morning. Now it was time to check out the animal shelters. I found the one on the internet that serviced our area, and in moments, there was a picture of Sparky in the shelter. I found my dog! I was going to call them to tell them I was on my way, but decided not to. I was going to leave right away, but something told me to stay home a little longer and not to rush. When I got there, I was told he was not in the kennel, but in the hospital. And when I arrived in the hospital, the vet said, "Sparky JUST got out of surgery. I removed that tumor that was in his ear." WOW! This was amazing!!! This was beyond belief!!! I thanked the vet profusely and blew him kisses of gratitude. And the whole thing, with impound fees, vaccinations, etc. only cost $107. To show my appreciation to the shelter, I drove across town to a place that makes the best gourmet cookies and brownies on planet Earth and surprised them with a box of goodies. Right now, I am trying to get ahold of the ladies who brought Sparky to the shelter so that I can send them a reward (they just haven't been home, and the shelter has been calling them for me since they cannot give out personal info.) EVERYONE WON! And it's because I let go. I stopped stressing. I listened to myself. And I kept visualizing the ideal scene. Oh, and one more thing. We just moved to this area a few months ago. I had ordered Sparky a new collar with our info embroidered directly on the collar. I had been waiting for it for over two months. Guess when it arrived? The day he ran away. Amazing. Had he had it on, he never would have gotten the operation. Anyhow, just wanted you to know how your loving words have touched our lives. This is just the beginning. Thanks so much. I will write you more successes as they occur. I look forward to your e-mails and am grateful each day that I read your words. Much love, - S.H.

Money: An illusion, a shadow of something else...

The first step to having wealth is to know what it is. And few people know what it really is, in and of itself. What is wealth? What causes it? What causes the cause of it? Let us start with money, the world's symbol of wealth, and then move deeper.

Money is not real.

Money is merely legal tender, a form of exchange. We use it to exchange value. It represents value.

Money is the 'body' of value. It is the physical representation of value that rises and falls in ourselves, within us. Not within 'things' outside of us, but within us. For without us, what can the value of a thing, such as a car, be to us? Nothing, at least not to us. In other words, it is we, the observers, that place value in things, but this value is really value in us – we give value to the material things. The material things have no 'money' value in themselves – we give that to them. So, money is the external physical representation of a particular section of our internal value, within us, within you. That is why a house or a block of shares valued at $1 million today can fall to a valuation of half a million dollars tomorrow when fear is introduced into the hearts of those involved. The fear kills a portion of the internal values of the participants and that is reflected by the paper money, the 'body' of value.

Here is something else: physical paper money does not even represent money in full. It cannot reasonably do that. By some estimates (and this varies from nation to nation), only as little as 4% of the money in the banks exists as paper cash. Imagine how much cotton, linen, pulp, and metal the world would need so as to make all the money everyone has in his or her bank accounts. Imagine how much space it would take to store all this money in paper form. If you were to stack only one million US$1 bills, it would weight one ton and be 361 ft high. Neither does money exist as gold reserves any more. This is for exactly the same reason – we ran out of the reasonable ability to keep a gold standard in the 1970s.

So what does it exist as, the money that we are always talking about? Well, it is one massive illusion. It is all just numbers written on paper and computer storage devices, and assigned to people and entities such as companies and investments, or more accurately, further records! To put it in another way, for every $100 or its equivalent in any other currency, only about $4 exists as printed-paper notes or coins, while the remaining $96 exists as numbers written on papers and computers in banks and businesses and other entities. The only reason this system does not collapse is that we all believe in it. The last time people stopped believing in it in a large enough extent was just before the Great Depression when large numbers of people rushed to their banks to withdraw their money and found that they could not all get it. This is not what caused the Great Depression, but it in a large way accelerated it.

So, money is not real – something else is. Money is just the shadow of that other something. The first step to wealth is to know what money really is, or more accurately, what it represents. Learn not to look at the money most of the time. As you will soon see, it is very rare in a day that you should ever look at money as you know it today – the cash, the bank accounts, the costs, etc. This is merely the shadow and not the real thing. Looking at the shadow, the physical money, as you will soon see, is most of the time very unwise and unhealthy for you and your finances.

Look, instead, at the value within you and within people, and the flowing and exchanging of this value between people. Our internal value, is what creates money. Money is the shadow of our internal value. Develop this internal value in yourself and in others and your external money and wealth will correspondingly rise automatically, without fail.

Know this however: Money represents an aspect of a person's internal value, but that does not mean that it represents a person's entire internal value. That is very important. It is not about self-worth. Money only represents an aspect of that internal value that pertains to wealth. You cannot therefore say that a wealthy person has a higher self-worth and value than a poor person, but you can correctly say that in matters that relate and pertain to money, the wealthy person has a higher internal value in that aspect of value or that the person chooses to exercise a higher proportion of this internal value. This section of internal value that reflects on the outside as money, when exercised, is called Wealth Consciousness. It is available to all people equally and can be developed by and within all people equally. Like everything else that is important to our being alive, such as air, wealth consciousness is free to all. But you can choose to develop it or not develop it, or to exercise it or not. At any time, you can change your choice, and nothing outside of you can stop you.

You require nothing outside of yourself to increase your wealth consciousness, and therefore your money. All you need is within you right now. You may have forgotten it, but it is right there. You will now remember it. And the first step to that is to always remember that money is not real; it is the shadow of something else.

And here is another secret: Wealth consciousness is simply the expansion of your consciousness and awareness into the wealthy parts of your Self. That is why all that you need to increase your wealth consciousness is within you already. You are already wealthy, but you have been taught to choose to not experience your wealth. This insight changes everything. Like the wealthy people, you can now know how to and choose to start experiencing the wealthy you.

You have more wealth capability within you than you can possibly experience in a lifetime. You need not worry that you have reached your limit of becoming wealthy in any way or because of any condition. Neither do you need to know how to convert wealth consciousness into paper cash money – as you will see, it will happen automatically. All you need to do is expand your wealth consciousness and exercise it, act on it, be it, and the situations and opportunities for the equivalent conversion into cash money will present themselves automatically to you. None of the extremely wealthy people today could have, at the time when they were not wealthy, possibly predicted and planned the exact sequence of events that would lead to their immense wealth. They most probably had a set of goals and a plan, but any one of them will tell you that they met countless ‘coincidences’ and opportunities that ‘joined the dots’ for them in ways they could never have predicted. Their goals were their own doing, but the paths that led to them coming into being, and exceeding them, were amazingly intelligent yet unforeseen. You shall now see how to make them happen in your life – you may not be able to predict their sequence, but you can certainly make these ‘fortunate coincidences’ happen to you every day of your life.

By the way, it is not only paper money that is not real. A lot of the things around you that you hold so real are really not real at all either. You are about to embark on a beautiful, empowering and liberating journey that will show you exactly what your world is in a way that you have never looked at it before. It is a journey that will open your eyes and free your wings. You are about to look ‘under the hood’ of the Life, you are about to learn how to customize your world to your liking.

You are about to attain Wealth Consciousness. Once you do, avoiding success and wealth will become very difficult. Yes, you read that correctly. Once you have wealth consciousness, it will be very difficult for you to not have success and wealth. Success and wealth will follow you automatically wherever you go. You will not need to concern yourself with their quest, yet they will find you. You will be free to experience other aspects of life that you may not have even dreamt of before, dimensions of Self and Life that are truly amazing. The same goes with happiness, for you will see it here in this book as well.

Let us now get started on the real stuff, if you are still interested...

The Steps To Wealth and Happiness

You are now on a journey, at the end of which you shall know how to create all the wealth and happiness you ever wished for, Now, without any limits. You shall soon also know many timeless truths about who you really are, what you are doing here, and what this game of life is all about. Here are the steps of the journey you are now taking with this book:

1. You shall first take a simplified look at Quantum Physics, for knowing what you and the world are made of is the first key to knowing how to make it your way. After this, you will never look at the world in the same way again. You shall have an amazing sense of involvement and power in the universe...
2. Then the secrets of time shall be unveiled, beginning with the fact that time does not exist. You shall learn how to use this illusion instead of being used by it. There is only Now...
3. You now will learn how to create your universe out of the quantum field using images of your mind. This is the first part of the creation lessons.
4. You then learn how to create using your thoughts. You will learn the right way to think, and what the mind is really for, and when to shut it down for your own benefit...
5. You will then look at the power of true goal setting in the thousands, in a way you may never heard before, a most powerful way...
6. Next will come the most powerful creation tool of all, your state of Being...
7. The final creation tool, action, will then be uncovered in it's true position and purpose to you...
8. You shall then learn the magical and vital ingredient of certainty, and learn how to have it in plenty...
9. Now, it will be time to look at the prime Law of the Universe and how to use it to have happiness and wealth in abundance. This is the law of Cause and Effect...
10. While still in this law, we shall look at what conditions really are. This will shock you, make you laugh, empower you, and free you...
11. While still on conditions, you shall see how you are and shall realize ever-present success and never fail...
12. Then, you shall look at a prime killer of wealth and happiness and how to totally avoid it...
13. You will then move on to progressively larger things. You will start with your self-chosen Purpose here on earth. Why did you come here? You shall see...
14. Then the gift of giving and the gifts it brings in return will be fully given to you...

15. The power of gratitude Now shall be unveiled. This will prove to be extremely powerful for you...
16. Finally, it will be time to look at Consciousness, what makes you Here, Now, awake...
17. And then it shall get really interesting when you have a look at your Self, the First Cause of all that is in your world. Get familiar with your Self and your world will change dramatically...
18. After that, you shall see what is larger than the Self, that which you and all else are part of. It is the One. Knowing how you relate to All That Is, The Source, then experiencing this, will put you in a position of immense joy and abundance...
19. And on that note, you shall see how abundant you really are...
20. From there, you shall look at your real nature and how to reclaim it. It is the nature of pure joy...
21. Then, coming around full circle, you shall see how to best handle paper money, as you know it now, to increase wealth...

And to close this part of this journey, you will be guided into the next empowering steps you may wish to take after you first finish this book...

Quantum Physics: Knowing what you and the world are made of is the first key to knowing how to make it your way

You may be wondering what quantum physics has to do with wealth and happiness. Well, you had better believe that it has everything to do with it! How can you build a house if you do not know what a house is made of and how it is constructed?

Quantum Physics begins to explain how everything in your world comes to be. You are in direct manipulation of your entire physical world, but you may not be aware of this fact. And your lack of awareness of this fact, how the physical matter comes about and your role in it, makes your life appear to you as an occurrence that is out of your control. It may appear to you as if you are the victim of circumstances, while all along you are the cause of those circumstances, including your experiencing of wealth or lack of it.

Quantum Physics is the first step in an amazing awakening that you are about to undergo. Not only will you understand the very construction of all that you see around you, you will also understand exactly how your belief and thinking creates matter, how you reap what you sow, how 'even before you ask, it has been given unto you', and so on. It is science finally catching up with spirituality and common sense, and explaining it! Think about it; when someone tells you that anything is possible if only you believe, aren't you more likely to believe that when you know how, step-by-step and scientifically, your belief shifts the universe and produces what you believe in?

One of the benefits of understanding the very basics of quantum physics (and the basics is all you need to understand) is that you finally see clearly how powerful concepts such as faith and right thinking work, among other things. This seeing and understanding, this knowing, enables you to have full confidence, eliminate doubt, create your reality consciously, powerfully and beautifully, and in many ways become more powerful.

Quantum physics also shows you how we are all connected, how we are all One Being that perpetuates an illusion of separate individual beings. It also gives you a glimpse into how Spirit and Matter interact and connect, how Mind and Matter do so as well, how creation actually happens, and how we are co-creators with God. By the end of this chapter and the next four chapters, you will be amazed at how much power you have, how amazing this universe is, and how easy it is to create any outcome you choose.

But first, what is quantum physics? Quantum physics is the study of the building blocks of the universe. For example, your body is made up of cells. These cells are in turn made up of molecules, which are made up of atoms, which are in turn made up of sub-atomic particles such as electrons. This is the world of quantum physics. Everything is made up of 'large groups' of sub-atomic particles. Your body, a tree, thoughts, a vehicle, a planet, light, and everything else are 'concentrations' of energy. All of them are large collections of pretty much the same types of sub-atomic particles. The only difference is in the way these particles are grouped together into ever-larger building blocks. Knowing how the work is a key to knowing how to re-create yourself and your world around you.

To speak correctly, a sub-atomic particle is not really a particle in the way that a grain of sand is a particle. While atomic and larger particles are objects, or things, subatomic particles are not objects as such. They are 'probabilities of existence' and at the same time 'multiple existences'. They are also wave-like and particle-like at the same time. You will soon see what all this means by the end of this chapter.

Quantum physics asks the question 'what are these sub-atomic particles and how do they act?' Well, the sub-atomic particles are energy packets sometimes called quanta. Everything in this universe is made up of energy, and these energy packets behave in the most amazing way! They are at our command! The reason they would arrange themselves into a luxury boat, for example, is our individual and collective thoughts. Do you now start to see the link between wealth and quantum physics? Up until this point, you may have been designing your world haphazardly and unconsciously. Now you will awaken and do it deliberately and consciously with direction.

Lets begin our journey into the quantum field...

What is your body made of? Tissues and organs. What are tissues and organs made of? Cells. What are cells made of? Molecules. What are molecules made of? Atoms. What are atoms made of? Sub-atomic particles. What are sub-atomic particles made of? Energy? No. They are not made of energy; they are energy. You are one big 'chunk' of energy. And so is everything else. Spirit and Mind puts together this energy into the physical shape you are used to seeing.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Quantum physics tells us that it is the act of observing an object that causes it to be there where and how we observe it. Energy is the sub-atomic particles that in turn make up atoms and finally matter. This energy exists as waves spread out over space and time. Only when you exercise observation do these waves become particles localized as a space-time event, a particle at a particular 'time' and 'place'. As soon as you withdraw observation, they become a wave again. So, as you see, your observation, your attention to something, and your intention, literally creates that thing as a space-time event. This is scientific. In other chapters, we shall see how to focus, concentrate, and guard your attention, intention, and thought to create your reality exactly.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

No solid object is solid. It is made up of rapidly flashing packets of energy. Billions and trillions of packets of energy. They flash in and flash out of that space where the 'object' is. They do not just stay there. So, why does a human body or a car look like a solid continuous object when we now know that it is actually a rapidly flashing field of energy? Think of a TV image. When you watch a movie, you see a person walk across the screen smoothly, yet in reality it is just a film reel with 24 slightly different frames a second so your eyes do not detect the gap between the frames. Even each of those frames is a composition of billions of light photons flashing at the speed of light. That is what your world is – a rapid flash that causes an illusion of being 'solid' and 'continuous'. Once you understand what your world is really, truly, you start to understand it's true behavior and nature. You then change your view of it. And with your changed perception, you change your creation of it. This is the first step to wealth.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Every single physicist agrees on one thing: sub-atomic particles, those energy 'packets' or quanta, are not particles in a particular point in space and time, like a table or a chair is, but they are a probability that they can exist at various points in space and time. The act of us observing them converts them into a 'physical' particle at a particular point in space and time, and once we withdraw that attention, they become a probability again. Imagine that the chair in your living room is one big sub-atomic particle. This is how it would act: when you are not in the house and not thinking of your chair, it would 'vanish' and become a probability that it can 're-appear' anywhere in your living room or anywhere else in the universe, actually. When you come back home and you think of sitting on a chair in a particular spot in your living room, and you look for a chair at that spot where you wish to sit, it will magically re-appear! This is not some fantasy magical story. Sub-atomic particles behave just like that!

The amazing thing is that all matter is composed purely of massive amounts of these particles. Therefore, all matter acts exactly like a large group of sub-atomic particles would. A chair's 'being there' is a result of us all watching it being there and deciding it to be there. It is not a wholly independent existence. No matter is a wholly independent existence – independent of the observer. As some scientists say, if everyone and everything in the universe stopped looking at the moon or thinking about it, it would not be a physical moon any more – it would be a probability of existence. The act of observation makes the probability become a definite thing and all other probabilities of it being elsewhere in the same world a null existence. Continuous attention keeps it that way, producing the illusion of a solid continuous existence of a physical moon.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Physicists have also discovered that quantum 'particles' make decisions. They are powered by intelligence. Not only that, they also know, instantly, what decisions are being made by other particles anywhere else in the universe! This synchronicity across space and time is instantaneous – they 'communicate' without taking any time or crossing any space. In fact, they also move instantaneously without having to go across space or take time. They can get from point A to B without having to cross the space in between, and point A and B can be in different times. Remember that quantum 'particles' are not particles, as you would normally think of a particle. They are not 'things' that are at a particular 'place' and 'time' – they are spread across space and time.

So, what is the intelligence that powers them? Well, it is from the Mind of The Source, God, All That Is, proportionately made up your own 'individual' mind and also the 'individual minds' of the rest of the universe, depending on the subject matter, scope, and strength of will.

Think about all this carefully. Think about the fact that everything your eye can see is made up of these amazing particles, which are under your co-control. Think about the scientific facts that now prove that you are at cause, or co-cause, for everything around you, that nothing you observe can exist without your observation. All you need to do is choose what you wish to observe, choose it with certainty and consistency, and this will cause the energy field to materialize into that thing over 'time', depending on your clarity, focus and certainty. Scientists have discovered that even in the strictest double-blind experiments, their expectations still influence results and it is impossible to carry out an experiment where there is zero influence from the observer on the results of the experiment.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Quantum packets or particles are best defined as probabilities of existence. For example, say you have a quantum packet called Mr. X. Before you ask to speak to Mr. X, he will not exist as a person. He will exist as a potential person. Mr. X will be all over the world at the same time, with varying potentials to appear in person in Moscow, New York, Kabul, Tokyo, Sydney, Cape Town, or any other town in the world. Now, when you call his name, he will appear where you called him, and at that point the probability of him appearing in any other city will become zero. Then when you finish your conversation with him, he will vanish again and stop being a localized person, become spread out like a wave, and the probability of appearing anywhere in the world again takes place. That is how a quantum packet called Mr. X would behave. Keep in mind that everything in this universe is made up of quantum packets.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Another property of quanta is that they are multidimensional. So, in the example of Mr. X above, when Mr. X is a probability, he is multidimensional. When he localizes when we call him, he becomes a thing in our four dimensional world (our world as we know it is actually four dimensional, with length, width, height and time being the dimensions). This is scientific. You now see, scientifically, that our universe is multidimensional, although our senses are capable of only detecting length, width, height and time as the only dimensions. Yet, our souls are also multidimensional. Listen to your soul, your feelings.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

The physical world is literally made up of ideas and energy.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

If you ever feel powerless, consider this: Einstein and other quantum scientists have proven that all physical matter is made up of energy packets that are not bound by space and time. This energy field has no well-defined boundaries. The universe is literally your extended timeless and unbound body. Science has also proven that the mind has no boundaries. All minds are 'connected' into one mind field. You are bigger and more powerful than you think you are. So, stop sweating the small stuff.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You already have it all. It has been said that before you ask it was already given to you. Science is beginning to prove, through quantum physics, that this is scientifically true. The infinite intelligence and potentiality at the quantum level, the level that makes up all that is around us, and our inherent abilities to influence this field, is what gives us the 'having it all'. We are beginning to know this on a larger scale, scientifically as well as spiritually.

You already have all the riches beyond your wildest dreams. You have it. You may not be experiencing it right now, but you have it. Having and experiencing are two different things. An easy way to explain it is that you have the ability to fly a plane or surf a wave or go scuba diving, but you may not have experienced this aspect of your ability. There is nothing you need to do to have this ability; it is already in you. It has already been done for you. All you need to do is experience this ability.

In our lives, we really are simply shifting our consciousness to experience aspects of ourselves that we already always had, in a universe that has all that we can possibly wish to have, even that which we have not imagined exists. The quantum field can form an infinite number of shapes and experiences out of it. In fact, it has already done that. The page of this book is just one of those things, the words you are reading is just one of those things, the next thought you will have is just one of those things. Yet you never predicted you would be experiencing these pages. But your desire to find such words has caused them to appear in your hands. Indeed, they have always existed. You need not predict exactly how things will work out, all you need to do is desire, intend, and know its possible, and it will be arranged to come to you.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Dr. J. S. Bell, a physicist at the European Organization for Nuclear Research (CERN) in Switzerland, came up with mathematical proof in 1964 that showed that all the 'separate' parts of the universe are all connected in an immediate and close way. Many experiments now show that particles separated by space and time somehow know exactly what the other is doing at the exact time the other is doing that particular thing. In other words, they do not communicate. Communication takes time and requires a message. This is different. They know without having to communicate. They act simultaneously as if they are intimately connected somehow across space and time, in a way that does not get affected by the separation in space and time between them.

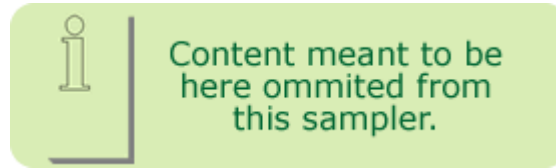

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

The other profound thing that Bell's mathematical constructs shows is that the action of a sub-atomic particle is dependent on something happening somewhere else to another sub-atomic particle. In other words, all sub-atomic events are effects of others, and causes of others. This brings the law of cause and effect, of karma, of reaping and sowing, to a completely new light! The law of cause and effect, karma, is not only spiritual but also scientific.

Everything which for each of us constitutes the past, the present, and the future is given in block...Each observer, as his time passes, discovers, so to speak, new slices of space-time which appear to him as successive aspects of the material world, though in reality the ensemble of events constituting space- time exists prior to his knowledge of them. - Louis de Broglie, awarded the Nobel Prize in 1929.

The Truth About Time: It does not exist except as you say it does

Time is a funny thing. A very funny thing. The biggest trick time ever played on us was to make us think it was real, and that we were under its full control. Yet, time is a complete illusion, a strong and persistent illusion.

What wonderful news that is! Time is an illusion created by you. Once you understand how this illusion is created by you, you then begin to re-create it as you wish, consciously and deliberately instead of unconsciously and accidentally as you may have been doing.

What is time? What do I have to do with time? How should I think and be about time so that I may experience wealth and other things in larger quantities faster? This chapter will begin to answer these questions. In other chapters in this book, these concepts will become more real to you.

The only time that truly exists is Now...

The distinction between past, present and future is only an illusion, however persistent - Albert Einstein

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Whether time is long or short, and whether space is broad or narrow, depend upon the mind. Those whose minds are at leisure can feel one day as a millennium, and those whose thoughts are expansive can perceive a small house to be as spacious as the universe. - Hung Tzu-ch'eng

Time flows in all directions, not forwards only as it appears to. The past, present and future exist simultaneously.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Here is an easy explanation of what time is. This is an extremely simplified explanation but it will do for now. Imagine a football or soccer field with 10 objects spread around it. Now, imagine that a certain object A represents a child being born and a certain object B represents being a 10 year old child. If object A was to travel to object B, that travel would take what you now call '10 years of time'. That is 10 human years of a child growing up. Now, it gets a little complex: What if that football field was to shrink? Object A would reach B and pass through all the experiences of 10 years of childhood, but the sensation of time would change. In other words, 10 years would feel very different. If that field shrunk enough, ten years could feel like an instant. And you have experienced this often. When you are having a great time, you feel as if time flew by. You did not notice the hours pass; yet your watch said they passed, because your watch is designed to take the same amount of 'time' to move from one second marker on the clock face to the next. But you are not designed that way. Time is the moving of your consciousness past pre-existing events in the space-time continuum. You will soon see what this is.

The field of life that we live in is not static – it keeps changing its dimensions. That is why we have to keep readjusting our watches worldwide all the time for this crazy thing called time to make sense for us – but only because we think of time as consistent slices of periods. It is not. It is merely our misinterpretation of our consciousness moving by one pre-existing event in the field of Life to the next event, as you shall soon see. The field of life is not static, nor does our consciousness move at a fixed speed. The field may not change that fast for us, and our consciousness may not change its rate that fast unless we will it to do so, and that is why we do not usually notice these differences that much and see that time is not constant.

But if you were to travel very fast in a spaceship, as you may well have heard from Einstein's Theory of Relativity, you can slow down time or even go back in time. Time is more of a sensation of passing events and the faster or slower you pass these events, the faster or slower the calibration of time changes. It is not the taking of time that changes; it is the calibration of time (one minute no longer takes one minute).

Ok, back to the soccer field. Imagine you were one of the objects. You would feel time as you move around the field passing other objects that you see, isn't it? Yes. Now, imagine if you were born moving faster, say three times the speed. Time would seem shorter. Now, imagine you were the soccer field itself! Or even an object large enough to cover the whole field. Now we are talking! Time would cease to exist for you. Because you are the field and you can feel, touch, and be with all the objects on you at the same time always, there would be no travel from one object to another. It would all be happening Here, Now. All of it. All the 10 objects would be happening at the same 'time' for you, always. This is the eternal moment of Now, Here. Everything that can possibly happen in the universe, everything that can possibly be created, the past, present and future, are all running all at the same 'time' in one huge field. Your consciousness and awareness are awake to only a small section of this field at any one 'time' and as you move them about from one point to another, you experience 'time', experiencing a sensation of past, present, and future. The field itself does not experience time; it only experiences an eternal process that is always happening all at one go, Now, Here, Always, All Ways. You can think of the whole field as The Source.

As you expend your consciousness and awareness, as you take up more and more of the field, and time shrinks for you. Can you see that? Now the amazing thing is that, the mind and the Self (or soul or spirit, whichever you are used to referring to) is a lot larger than your physical body. We are used to thinking of the soul or Self as a little thing contained inside our body. That is just human thinking – relating things to containers. Have you ever considered that the soul, being far more powerful than the body, actually holds the body together and surrounds it? And the mind holds the brain and nervous system together and surrounds it? If you have considered that the soul and mind are larger than the body and brain, have you ever considered where they end? How many feet away from your body? Or is it how many miles away? Or how many light years away from your body does your soul end? It is not impossible that your Soul and Mind are a billion times larger than your body (why not?). They are infinite and eternal.

Yet, this humongous powerful Self is you. Anyway, let us get back to wealth. Understanding time clearly, how it works and how to take control of it, and understanding your Self and your Self's composition and relation with everything else physical and non-physical, is of high importance if you wish to experience massive wealth 'fast'. It is all a matter of expanded consciousness, right state and right thought and choice. These lead to your consciousness becoming awake to wealthy parts of the whole and doing so in wider circles.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Now is the only moment that exists. An eternal moment of Now is all there is. You can remember the past and dream the future but you can only be, exist, Here, Now. Make an irrevocable commitment to yourself to make Now the best moment of your life ever!

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

The present moment is the greatest gift you can have. It is perfectly created for you according to your stated designs. You state these designs by the thoughts, states of being, words, and actions that you held most true to yourself earlier. The present is something that you send yourself, a perfectly pre-sent moment. It allows you to experience, taste, review, and change your past thoughts, states of being, words and actions. Be grateful for the present, for you know you can change it, for it allows you to experience your Self, for its entire existence is to serve you. Cursing, condemning and judging the present moment will only keep it as it is longer. What you resist, judge, and condemn persists. What you embrace and bring to the light for non-judgmental, honest and clear examination reveals the lessons you are looking for, the key to the next level that you seek.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Time is only an illusion produced by the succession of our states of consciousness as we travel through eternal duration, and it does not exist where no consciousness exists in which the illusion can be produced; but 'lies asleep.' -

H. P. Blavatsky

Images of the Mind: The blueprints of life

The next step to getting wealthy is to know how life works. In other words, how does the force of life take instructions and turn them into things and new moments out of the quantum energy field? What type of instructions does Life take so that it may create each new moment in your day? In what format and specifications?

This chapter seeks to answer these questions with you. They are the most basic questions, but they must be answered first before we get progressively deeper into the essence of wealth. In fact you may have heard the principles in this chapter before, they aren't really new yet few people understand them fully and even fewer use them, despite their simplicity.

Although imagination is such a basic part of becoming wealthy, it is an integral part. Every other part uses this simple part at some stage. Your mind's images are literally the blueprint from which your world is built.

In the chapter on Quantum Physics, you see scientifically how physical reality is produced. In other chapters in this book, you will also see imagination's interconnections with Life. But let us first look at imagination, images of the mind, in and of itself.

Life is images of the Mind, expressed...

Life is images of the mind, expressed. What this means is that Life, The Source, uses your thoughts, your mental images, as the instructions by which to create your reality in the material world. Life expresses your mental images into physical reality. To express is to make known, to state, articulate, communicate, convey. The force of Life makes known your thoughts to yourself and everyone else by forming them into experiences and objects that can be experienced, here in the physical world. You experience your own thoughts first hand, your images of your mind, so that you may know which ones are suitable and which ones are not. That is how you know yourself, that is how you experience your self, and that is how you grow. This is the supreme purpose of this physical world that we are now in. It is designed to enable you to experience your Self. It is designed to enable you to experience an idea and its effects and consequences.

Life does not select which ones of your images to express and which ones not to. How would it choose for you? It therefore expresses all of them to the extent that you have them and believe them. You have true free will. This free will is truly free because of the fact that all of it is acted upon without filtering or favoring. Free will is truly free because of the fact that it actually gets results all the time, not just some of the time, and it gets them exactly. Later we will see how exactly free will works, even when it looks as if it is impossible for it to do so.

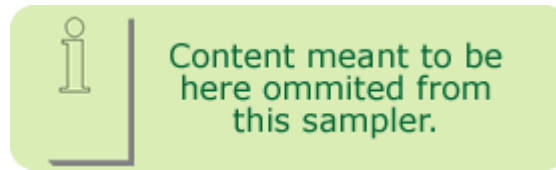

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Imagination is the force that takes you to places you have never been. Napoleon Hill said that imagination is the most marvelous, miraculous, inconceivably powerful force the world has ever known. Life is imagination, images of the mind, expressed into physical form. Feed your imagination daily and accurately with pictures, movies, and concentration. Spend time doing this in detail every day. Imagination is the most powerful force, and it is so because Life uses it to know what to create next. Most people spend little time imagining. They imagine using idle thought, haphazardly, and wonder why their life is not rich for them. Imagination has the power to make or break your life. It is your mind, and your choice.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Walt Disney, against all odds, criticism, and a string of 'failures', stuck to his imagination and became the entertainment king of the world. Mickey Mouse was launched at the lowest point of his 'failures'. No one could have predicted that an empire would have been launched on a mouse. When we willingly go where our most desired imaginations take us, we become creative forces that have no limits. Albert Einstein said that imagination is the greatest creative force. Learn to be willing to go where your imagination and desire takes you.
